5. The Issuer shall return the payee's receipt, if possible, but shall not be required to do so nor to undertake to trace delivery or payment of the money until after three months from date hereof.
6. In the event that the credit or remittance covered by this Foreign Money Order is returned to the Issuer, refund will be accepted by the Remitter for the equivalent in United States Dollars of the amount of foreign money involved, based on the current buying rate in New York on the date of refund for such foreign money, less any charges or expenses of the Issuer. If this Foreign Money Order is issued in United States Dollars and no conversion into foreign money has been made, such refund will be accepted by the Remitter for the United States Dollar amount for which this Receipt is issued, less any charges or expenses of the Issuer.
7. In case the amount of this Foreign Money Order is lost or stolen in transit in a foreign country, the Issuer shall not be liable for more than the amount of the foreign money credit, or, if for payment in United States currency, the amount of United States Dollars specified on this Receipt, and the refund of the foreign money or U. S. Dollars credit of this order, shall be made as provided for in the preceding paragraph and then, only when advice has been received that the foreign postal authorities, or other agents necessarily employed in connection with this Foreign Money Order, have returned the foreign money or U. S. Dollars credit to the paying correspondents in such foreign country.
8. The conditions printed on this Receipt state the exact obligations of the Issuer and shall not be altered or supplemented in any manner. No oral or collateral agreement shall bind the Issuer.
9. Any alteration or mutilation of this instrument renders the entire transaction void.

Dear Sir:

In re yours of May 9th
Salvatore Di Piero

It is found that the subject was admitted to citizenship at Jefferson, Ohio on October 4, 1932, with the understanding that he bring his wife and three minor children to this country. Since he has not brought them, the question arises as to whether he may not be deserting them. Due to financial conditions, however, it may be possible that he can satisfy the Court that it is not his intention to desert his family, and that he will bring them to this country as soon as he is financially able to do so.

Whether or not the Court may wish to release his certificate to him lies within the discretion of the Court. There is no objection on the part of this office if the Court does wish to do so.

It is suggested that the subject present this letter to the Clerk of Courts at Jefferson.

Yours truly,

A. L. Barkman
